

Buckden Walkers

Monday 1st July 2013

A circular walk , based upon Middleham; starting with a “Kingdom for a horse” and ending via the gallops.

Middleham castle, viewed from the moors.

Ye olde original Motte and Bailey castle.

Meet outside the Buck Inn, ready to depart by 10:30 am

Car sharing. Bring a picnic. Parking in Middleham Square, near to Richard III Hotel.

Dogs welcome, but sheep and other livestock will be encountered so bring a leash.

“A 5 mile walk from Middleham; easy walking with some stiles. Livestock and horses in fields, so dogs on leads. Gentle farmland, riverside path, views of Wensleydale.”

All are welcome, ‘spread the word’!

For further information, contact Joe or Judith on (01756) 760480.

ps Some midge repellent might be useful at this time of year; possibly sun cream as well
