

Monday Walk March 7th

Janet's Foss and Gordale Scar

Our usual gentle introduction to the Monday walking season. Paths shouldn't be too muddy despite the recent rain, and that will certainly mean the the waterfalls are looking good.

There will be a coffee stop (usually at the Foss) but you won't need a picnic lunch as it's only a short (3.5 miles) walk and we usually lunch at the pub after it.

Meet at the Buck at 10.30am for car sharing, or at the Malham Car Park as near to 11.00 as we can get there.

If the weather looks impossible I'll email people on Sunday, but at present the forecast indicates nothing worse than cloudy before 3.00pm on Monday.
