

FREE ENERGY SWITCHING SESSION

Worried you're spending too much heating your home?

North Yorkshire County Council Libraries and Rural Action Yorkshire have teamed up to offer you a FREE energy switching session.

Beat the myths and get clued up on energy efficiency for your home with this FREE session. Bring your own bills and use our expert advice to make sure you are on the right tariff for you!

Skipton Library— Monday 26th January 2015, 10am-12pm
Crosshills Library—Thursday 29th January 2015, 2-4pm
Settle Library—Friday 30th January 2015, 2-4pm
Ingleton Library—Monday 2nd February 2015, 10-12pm
Bentham Library—Monday 2nd February 2015, 2.30-4.30pm

Come along to your local library for a practical session to learn how to compare energy suppliers using online sites, advice on grants you may be eligible for and clear up the jargon on tariffs and payment methods.

Book your free place

Call Martha Holmes on 0845 313 0270

Email Martha.holmes@ruralyorkshire.org.uk.

North

Yorkshire County Council

This project is kindly funded by North Yorkshire County Council and Airedale, Wharfedale and Craven Clinical Commissioning Group as part of the Well, Warm and Healthy Communities project.

